Dear Jesse: Well kid, I miss you already ... take care. I'll be back.

Te amo,
Bruce

If you do not understand my silence, you do not understand

It's an unfinished life that I find lies before me,
An unopened dream and I don't want to wait.
I've crossed so many rivers in search of crystal fountains,
I've found my truest paths always lead to mountains.
I've seen water on the sky, and fires burning on the lakes.

It's a journey within my soul that I am taking,
One that only goes from the cradle to the grave.
We go round in circles, like painted dancing horses,
Up and down we ride on our wooden courses.
And the light on the mountain tops is all that I can see.

So I'll take my days and climb out across the glaciers,
Where the rocks grow high and the shadows long.
Where my eyes can see all the colors in the air,
So quiet that the wind whispers in my hair.
And lifts the rising mist, and carries me away.

The alpenglow paints the mountain tops
With colors of the rainbow, but I cannot find the end.
No matter how I try.

-Dick Dillon

JOHN RICHARD STACEY

The houses are haunted
By white night gowns.
None are green,
Or purple with green rings,
Or green with yellow rings.
Or yellow with blue rings.
None of them are strange,
With socks of lace
And beaded ceintures.
People are not going To dream of baboons and periwinkles.
Only here and there, an old sailor
Drunk and asleep in his boots,
Catches tigers
In red weather.

"As you discover changing times, you must have the strength to endure. In these ever changing times, you must learn to stand all alone. As we learn to grow." -Earth, Wind, and Fire

Whom, then, do I call educated? First, those who manage well the circumstances which they encounter daily and who possess a judgement which is accurate in meeting occasions as they arise and rarely miss the expedient course of action; next those who are decent and honorable in their intercourse with all men, bearing easily and good-naturedly what is unpleasant or offensive in others, and being themselves as agreeable and reasonable to their associates as it is humanly possible to be.

Furthermore, those who hold their pleasure always under control and are not unduly overcome by their misfortunes, bearing up under them bravely and in a manner worthy of our common nature; finally, and most important of all, those who are not spoiled by their successes and who do not desert their true selves, but hold their ground steadfastly as wise and sober-minded men, rejoicing no more in the good things which have come to them through chance than in those which through their own nature and intelligence are theirs through birth.

Friends

Friends ... How many of us have them?

Friends ... ones that we can depend on.

Friends ... How many of us
have them?

Friends ... before we go any further, let's be friends.

Friends is a word we use everyday.

Most of the time we use it in the wrong way.

Now you can look the word
up again and again;
but the dictionary doesn't know the meaning of
friends;

and if you asked me you know I couldn't be much help,
because a friend is somebody you judge for yourself.

Some are O.K. and they treat
you real cool;
and some mistake your kindness for being a fool.

We like to be with some because they're funny;
others come around when they need some money.

Some we grew up with along the way;
and you're still real close to this very day.

Homeboys through the summer, winter, spring,
and fall;

and there are some we wish we never knew at all.

And this list goes on again
and again;
but these are the people we call friends.

Friends ... How many of us
have them?

Friends ... Ones that we can depend on.

Friends ... How many of us
have them?

further let's be friends.

My profound message to be conveyed here on this page of everlasting me:

If I have learned one thing it is this: to feel. To feel is to live. So cherish all emotion. Emotion is what fills life and gives it color. Our song begins and ends on the same note. If you want to make good music out of life, you have to fill the spaces between the beginning and the end with notes of passion, pain, and everything else that you feel.

A good soldier is not violent.
A good fighter is not angry.
A good winner is not vengeful.
A good employer is humble.
This is known as the virtue of not striving.
This is known as ability to deal with people.
This since ancient times has been known as the ultimate unity with heaven.
